

THE ANTI-CRUELTY SOCIETY

157 West Grand Avenue Chicago | WEBSITE

MISSION STATEMENT

To build a community of caring by uplifting and celebrating the human-animal bond. We are an open admission shelter which means we care for all animals and will not turn away any animal in need.

Programs and Services:

Animal rescue and rehoming; Cruelty and neglect investigations; Low-cost spay/neuter services; Low-cost veterinary care; Humane education for children and adults; Community-based animal care solutions; Volunteer opportunities for groups and individuals.

Could be a good fit for a candidate with skills in:

Legal, Finance / Financial Management, Strategy / Strategy Management, Philanthropy, Change Management; Community Organizing; Mergers & Acquisitions; Real Estate, Facilities Construction and Management, Philanthropy

An optimal candidate for the board is:

We seek those who are passionate about ensuring that all animals are treated with compassion and who believe in the power of the human-animal bond to create a more humane world, promote happiness, and keep families whole, especially those in under-resourced communities. We seek candidates with diverse backgrounds, professional skills, and life experiences. We have huge aspirations for growth and impactful change and seek visionaries and strategists. We are moving into a more community-focused service delivery model and seek experience in community-building and -organizing.

Why you should consider joining this board:

The oldest and most comprehensive animal welfare organization in Chicago intends to be its most innovative and impactful as it approaches its 125th year of service. We seek visionaries, strategists, tactical advisors in growth, change, fund development, process improvement, marketing, quality, and communitybuilding and -organizing. People satisfied with the status quo need not apply.
