Create a LEGACY of CARING.

A small group of women joined forces in 1899 to help abused and unwanted animals in the city of Chicago. Rose Fay Thomas spearheaded this effort and thanks to her compassionate vision and organization of these incredible women, The Anti-Cruelty Society was founded.

When you leave a planned gift to help secure the future of The Anti-Cruelty Society and animals in need, you will become a member of the Rose Fay Thomas Society.

The Anti-Cruelty Society builds a healthy and happy community where pets and people thrive together.

Rose Fay Thomas Society

LEAVING A LEGACY
of compassion in action

COMPASSION in ACTION

anticruelty.org/planned-giving

The Rose Fay Thomas Society honors people who have thoughtfully named The Anti-Cruelty Society in their will, trust, or other estate plans. It is the Society's special way of recognizing donors whose planned gifts ensure a healthy financial future for our organization, as well as the pets in our care and in the community.

Ways to leave a legacy benefiting The Anti-Cruelty Society:

- Designate The Anti-Cruelty Society as a beneficiary in a will or living trust
- Make a gift of cash or appreciated securities to establish a charitable gift annuity with The Anti-Cruelty Society
- Create a charitable remainder trust or charitable lead trust, and name The Anti-Cruelty Society as the beneficiary
- Name The Anti-Cruelty Society as the beneficiary of a paid life insurance policy or a retirement account
- Transfer gifts of stocks, bonds, and mutual funds

Benefits:

- Recognition on the Society's planned giving wall
- Listing in the Society's Annual Report and website
- Invitations to special events and presentations

"I am proud to be a supporter of The Anti-Cruelty Society for the past 40 years. By leaving a portion of my estate to them, I know that the needy animals will continue to be well taken care of long after I'm gone. That's the legacy I want."

—Barbara Provus
