

THE ANTI-CRUELTY
SOCIETY

FRIENDS who CARE

Providing support to pets and seniors.

The Anti-Cruelty Society is committed to helping pets and people in every stage of their lives. When we say that pets are for life, we mean it!

Through Friends Who Care, we coordinate deliveries of provisions for cats, dogs, and other pets. The care packages are shipped directly to your home on a monthly basis, and at no cost to you!

To qualify for this program, you must be at least 65 years of age and have a referral from a local social services agency.

Interested in enrolling? Complete the Friends Who Care Enrollment Form (on the other side) to be signed up for customized deliveries.

Contact the Society at 312-645-8098 or email friendswhocare@anticruelty.org with any questions.
